

6. DORA

Life was good then - I had a job and a flat in London, and I was in love.

1 Not long after I met Dora, I went back to Yarmouth to see all my old friends.

2 I wasn't the only person who was in love!

I have good news! Ham and Emily are getting married next year!

3 Oh, David! I hope I will make Ham happy.

Of course you will. He loves you.

4 I'm in love, too! Her name is Dora.

How exciting! You must tell her that you love her!

When I got back to London, I took Emily's advice.

Dora... I... I... I love you, and I want to marry you!

6 I love you too, David. You must tell my father about this.

7 But Mr Spierlow was not happy to hear the news.

I won't let Dora marry a clerk!

But, sir...

8 There was more trouble when I got home.

Hello, Mrs.

Aunt Betsy! What are you doing here?

Of course!

9 Mr Wickfield says I've lost all my money. I have to rent my cottage to someone so I can get a little money. Can I stay here with you?

10

If Aunt Betsy is poor, so am I! It's never be able to marry Dora if I'm poor!
