

There is very little gold in the world. This is why gold is expensive. There is gold in the sea, but it is very hard to reach. The biggest piece of gold in the world came from Australia. It weighed more than 71 kilograms.

The Welcome Stranger Nugget

I climbed into the tunnel. I knew the way because of the map. Suddenly I saw Steve and Phil in a big cave. Then Harry came out of a small cave.

My brother had a big, wooden chest with him. Steve opened the chest and smiled. It was full of gold coins – Redbeard's gold! "I'm rich!" Steve shouted.
