

It is not a shark! It is a dolphin!
"Look at the dolphin," says David. "Isn't it great?" He swims with the dolphin to the boat.
"Oh, David! It's a dolphin!" says Faye. "You didn't tell us, David. Why? We were so worried."
"It's okay, Faye. Of course, I knew it was a dolphin! Sharks look different," says David.
Faye is angry with David. "But David, why didn't you tell us?" she asks.
David laughs and says, "Faye, you were really funny. You were so scared!"

"Faye, it wasn't a shark. It was a dolphin. You really scared me," says John angrily. "That was really bad of you. Never do that again, Faye," he says.

Faye says, "I'm sorry, John, but I was so worried. I didn't know it was a dolphin."

"It's okay," he says. "Be careful next time, please."

"Okay, I'm sorry," says Faye again.

"Come in the water, John. Faye, Daniela come in," says David happily. "Come and swim with the dolphins."
