

'You will never catch me!' cried Peter. He pushed Hook and then flew away. The crocodile was waiting to catch Hook. 'Aaagh!' cried Hook and he nearly fell into the water.

Hook said to the pirates, 'We must find Peter Pan!' They walked and walked until they found the house under the tree. Peter Pan and the others were there.

