

'Where am I?' thought Alice. It was a good question. Where was she? What was behind the little door? And what was in the bottle? These were also good questions.

Alice knew it was a bad idea, but she did it just the same. She drank from the bottle, and...

... she grew smaller and smaller!
Oh no! She didn't have the key! It was on the table!

